GREENEVILLE

"Hooks" Hold Sixth Annual Clambake at Drawbridge—Personals and Notes.

The showery weather Sunday in no way formed an obstacle to prevent the Greenville "Hooks" from having their annual clambake at the Drawbridge which was their sixth, nor did it mar the pleasures of the day.

At noon a luncheon was served and the bake at four o'clock. The bake was served by Leary of New London. At noon a luncheon was served at four o'clock. The bake was served by Leary of New London.

At intervals during the day members of Tubbs' band gave selections. The sports were under the direction of P. J. Murtha and they proved to be entertaining and full of merit.

The single men in a baseball game with the benedictus pounced out at 5 to 2 victory full of brilliant fielding and heavy batting. The lineup was as follows:

Single Men—T. Ellison, H. Coles, E. Taylor, B. Backer, W. Fleming, H. Shaw, W. Pavey, S. Dilworth and A. Peterson.

Married Men—M. Smead, A. Read, H. Pokulas, C. McMullen, H. Gee, W. Wallace, H. Blackburn, A. Mush and J. Holland.

The shotgun was won by William Fleming and H. Rydholm second; 100 yard dash, G. Shaw.

Although outclassed in a scientific baseball game the married men showed their superiority in the tug of war. The teams were: Single Men S. Solomon, J. Niles, H. Rydholm, G. Kramon, W. Pavey, Married Men, J. H. McMillon, C. Frodel, H. Spaulding, H. Hollin and P. Coates. James Hollin outran every one in the fat mens race. The judges were William Banfield and S. Solomon.

Foreman William S. Murray was a busy man seeing that everyone was comfortably taken care of.

James Kirker spent Sunday at Wintertown Point, Quaker Hill.

David Campbell has returned home after passing a week's vacation at Pleasant View.

Miss Anna E. Kane, of Worcester, Mass., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. William Neilbert.

Miss Mary Foley of Southington is the guest of her cousin, Miss Bridget A. Enright, of Seventh street.

DREW CON ON TALMAN STREET

Arrest Followed Complaint of Mrs. Alonzo Smith That Her Husband Beat Her—Joseph Falcone Intervened and Smith Pulled Out a Revolver—Found Asleep in Hinckley Hill Barn.

Most of the week ends this summer have been fairly quiet ones for the police, but now and then the social unrest becomes more than usually apparent among those people with whom the guardians of the law come most in contact. Saturday showed one of these sudden spurts and in a few hours the force was brought into a motley mass of humanity to do penance and appear in police court this morning to answer the demands of retributive justice as interpreted by Judge John H. Barnes. Just an even dozen men were arrested Saturday night and they were quite a cosmopolitan and travelled collection of types. Among those who participated in the gathering were people from New York, City, Soarville, Versailles, Pison, Colchester, Leonard Bridge and Waugrean and the remainder came from Norwich. Two of them were over 60 and two were under 20. The youngest was 23 and the average age was easily 45, which is supposed to be an age that assures a certain degree of discretion. Three of the men were in because of indictments for uprisings which had caused their respective wives to turn complainant, while the rest were due to alcoholic intoxication. Alonzo Smith, 26, was arrested on the most serious charge of any of the dozen, that of carrying a concealed weapon in addition to breach of the peace. His wife appeared at headquarters shortly after midnight. Saturday and complained that her husband had overtaken her and beaten her on Talman street. They have not been living together for some time, she said, and now he wants to come back, but she is unwilling to share life with him longer. She lives at 123 Talman street and the at 26 Hinckley street. Saturday night he followed her and their encounter attracted some attention on Talman street and Joseph Falcone who lives there, came to the aid of the young woman, and thereupon Smith pulled a revolver from his pocket. The wife got over to the police station as soon as possible while the husband made a getaway. Capt. Twomey concentrated his officers in that vicinity and after some searching Sergeant Kane and Officer Thomas Murphy came upon Smith sleeping in the hay in the Edwards barn on Hinckley hill. The wife was in because of indictments for uprisings which had caused their respective wives to turn complainant, while the rest were due to alcoholic intoxication. Alonzo Smith, 26, was arrested on

SIDEWALK APPROPRIATION BEFORE THE CITY TODAY.

Polis of the Central District Open From 9 Until 8 to Vote on $30,000 Bond Issue.

The polls in the Central district will be open today from 9 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening, in order to give the voters of the city of Norwich a chance of declaring their wishes in regard to taking advantage of the privilege authorized by the last general assembly, to issue bonds to the amount of $30,000. This sum of money is to be used in the building of sidewalks within the limits of the city.

In regard to the sidewalk improvements, which have been advocated and supported most heartily by the present administration, citizens who stand for progress and efficiency and civic beauty have taken a cordial attitude, and the plan as presented, is not burdensome. The interest on the $30,000 worth of bonds, which are to be paid up at the rate of $5,000 a year, will not be over $1.75 to the smaller tax payers the additional levy will be proportionally less. The city will bear one half the expense of laying all new sidewalks and the other half of common council and for this the $30,000 is to be devoted if the citizens so vote today. The abutting property owners who needed the sidewalks will bear the other half of the expense.

WARRING NATIONS SHOULD LAY DOWN ARMS.

Rev. Irving H. Berg of Hartford at Broadway Union Service Sunday.

The fifth of the union services was held Sunday morning at the Broadway Congregational church. The excellent sermon was given by Rev. Irving H. Berg, pastor of the South Congregational church in Hartford. His address was taken from Acts 17:31. "Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? For I am ready to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." This was no idle boast, as was afterwards shown by the fact that he was actually carried to Jerusalem and died there.

PING OF THE GOOD FELLOWSHIP CLUB

St. James' Church Organization Had Enjoyable Time at Atlantic Beach.

The Good Fellowship club of St. James' church, Poquetanuck, held a picnic at Atlantic Beach, Saturday afternoon. A special car with about ninety members and friends left Poquetanuck at two o'clock, making the return trip late in the evening. Bathing, athletic sports and dancing were enjoyed. Charles Harkness and Bert Williams were the committee who arranged the affair and William Mitchell and Christian Baer were in charge of the sports. Silk ribbons were given to the winners in the different races.

The list of events, with those who finished first, second and third, is as follows: 100-yard dash, Baral, C. Flynn, Mitchell; half mile race, Patterson, Mitchell, C. Flynn; three-legged race, M. Flynn and C. Eccleston, Nicolai and Spicer, C. Flynn and Whitaker; sack race, Patterson, Mitchell, Nicolai; relay race, Mitchell and Baral, C. Flynn and Whitaker, Baer and M. Flynn; broad jump, Nicolai, Mitchell, Thompson; swimming race, M. Flynn, Burdick, Mitchell; needle race, Olive McElvey and Patterson, Eleanor Stewart and M. Flynn; Mrs. Albert Harkness and Baer; potato race, Mrs. Louis Conrad, Mrs. William Mitchell, Eva Rist, Mary race, Grace Willett and Mrs. Albert Harkness; 50-yard dash, Edith Lucas, Mrs. Herbert Whitaker, Mrs. Louis Conrad, and the fifth is Dennis Sullivan of Providence, R. I. father.

A pension was also granted to J. D. La Mont of West Stockbridge, Mass., a locomotive fireman and engineer for thirty-one years.

IN THE CITY COURT.

Two Couples Find Married Life Not All Smooth Sailing.

The case against Morris Rosenberg, charged with striking his wife, was continued until October 1 by Judge John H. Barnes in the city court on Saturday morning, in order to give Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg time to adjust their domestic difficulties. Mrs. Rosenberg claims her husband drinks and abuses her. Mr. Rosenberg said he does not drink and did not strike his wife. Though he has made his property over to his wife, she would take the children and leave town if he would give him $200. The 11-year-old son testified in favor of his father.

The continued case of Maud L. Young, charged with keeping a house of prostitution at Walnut street, was called up and she was fined $1 and costs. The bill amounted to $4.31 and was paid. Judge Comstock represented the state.

On the charge of non-support of his family and six children, Frank Antonori, 47 years of age, of Natick, was before the court. The case was continued for six months. The accused put up a cash bond of $75 and agreed to pay his wife $2 weekly. It is said that if the accused does not keep to his agreement the bond will be used to make up the deficiency. Antonori's family reside in Norwich and two of his children are at work. The husband and wife blame each other for their troubles.

A chauffeur charged with calling an employer and his son names on the street Friday night was ordered to pay court costs amounting to $120. Twenty men, five women and one child attended the session.

CLEANSING OF THE LEPERS.

Day's Gospel Suggests Sermon on Man's Ingratitude—Rev. Myles P. Galvin Preaches.

The gospel read in the Catholic churches yesterday, the thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost, was Luke 17:11, the miracle of the cleansing of the lepers. At the 10:30 mass in St. Patrick's church, Rev. Myles P. Galvin preached on the ingratitude of the forgetful nine, as typical of the ingratitude of many Christians.

Men are ungrateful to God when they fail to show appreciation of His goodness, when they do not make the most of the talents and graces which God has given them and when they employ these sinfully.

DO YOU FEEL HEADACHY?
LOOK TO YOUR STOMACH

It is an unusual thing for a drug-gist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Lee & Osgood Co., the popular druggists, are selling Mi-o-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine has been successful as with Mi-o-na. People who a few months ago looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mi-o-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to Lee & Osgood Co. in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And they stand ready to do so without any questions.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, specks before the eyes, dizzy feelings, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mi-o-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while a complete cure often follows rapidly.

These days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good food. Let us give you the means and in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.

CARD OF THANKS.
It being impossible to communicate with each separately, we take this means of showing our deep appreciation of the many kindnesses shown us by neighbors and friends during the long illness and at the death of our dearly beloved husband and father. We are anxious to express our gratitude not only for the kindness shown us, but for the tribute thus paid to the memory of him who has been called away. Special thanks are due those who sent handsome flowers to the funeral and especially would we remember the fellow workmen on the Mitchell farms, where the deceased was employed the past seven years.
